

Chart: Seismic act after the M6.3 at 36.37N, 51.64E on May 28, 2004

Note:

Together, the Iranian seismologists recorded 167 shocks in Iran from 20040528 to 0612. The smallest magnitude was 1.7, and 12 shocks were on or over 4. The nearest to Tehran was a M2.1 on June 3. Except aftershocks of the M6.3 around 'D', the main act was along 'AB' and 'AC', coincidentally with them in satellite cloud image at 3:00 on June 13, 2004.